

Factsheet Master of Public Health 2021-2023

Program Aim

The major goal of the Master of Public Health (MPH) degree program, a generic degree program, is to train and produce professionals with broad knowledge and skills in the practice of public health to provide leadership in community health, planning and implementation of primary health care, and health services improvement. MPH graduates will be sufficiently prepared to engage in cutting-edge scientific research that will contribute significantly to improve quality of life.

Objectives

By the end of the program of study leading to the MPH degree, the student will be able to:

- I. Apply modern scientific methods and techniques to appraise disease prevalence in the community and conduct needs assessment and epidemiological interventions in the community.
- II. Participate in community development activities in cooperation with community leaders and representatives of other agencies.
- III. Apply Public Health principles derived from public health science courses to address:
 - a) Community nutrition issues (growth monitoring etc.)
 - b) Environmental health challenges (water and sanitation etc.).
 - c) Emerging and common, endemic communicable diseases and chronic illnesses.
 - d) Maternal and child health issues challenging communities.
 - e) Community health needs.

Career Prospects

On completion of the program, the student with the resulting knowledge, skills and attitude could be able to enable in applying public health principles into effect in a variety of settings including research, practice and the interface of applied research.

- ✓ Environmental Scientist
- ✓ Epidemiologist
- ✓ Public Health Faculty
- ✓ Public Health Lab Scientists
- ✓ Environmental Health Researcher
- ✓ Occupational Health Specialists
- ✓ Nutrition Consultant
- ✓ Social and Behavioral Health Marketer
- ✓ Biostatistician

Program Regulation

Program Title	Master of Public Health
Program Duration	Two Years
Eligibility Criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Bachelor's degree in public health/ health sciences/ paramedical science/ social work from recognized university. b) With a current license to practice. c) With at least 1-2 years of bedside experience. d) Certificate of Employment e) Clearance of Interview f) TOEFL test
Medium of Instruction	English
Mode of Delivery	Online Programs
Learning Methodology	The core learning methodology includes BRICS model, Continuous assessment, Forum Discussions, FSI, Case Studies, Contextual, Capstone Project Work, Article Review, and Research Project.
Academic Requirement:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Learn modules by resources delivered (PPT Lectures, PDF E-Books, Video's) ✓ Lectures, and external references provided by faculty ✓ Undergo Contextual Project ✓ Actively participate in the Forum Discussions ✓ Attend Faculty Students Interaction Sessions ✓ Accomplish Capstone Projects ✓ Undergo Article Reviews and Book Reviews ✓ Submit Reflective Assessment of Learning Outcome (RALO) ✓ Attempt proctored Final Examination on each subject ✓ Participation in TAU E- conference is Mandatory
Eligibility for Examination	Students should have attendance in the following requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ MCQ's - 80 %

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ Forum Discussion - 80%✓ Faculty Student Interaction Session - 80%✓ Submission of Contextual Project/Case Study and Capstone Projects✓ 50% of Internal Marks and 50% of External Marks.
Research Work	<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ The student must carry out a research work relevant to their area of specialization.✓ Student will develop their practical skills by applying their theoretical knowledge on the chosen topic of research and publish the same as a research article.✓ The student must identify their Guide by themselves, Guide will act as a Local supervisor for the student to complete his/her Research Work Successfully.✓ Co-guide will be allotted by TAU to monitor and evaluate the research work.

Program Structure

Block	Subjects	Credit
Block 1	Introduction to Public Health Practice	4
Block 2	Epidemiology	4
Block 3	Biostatistics	4
Capstone Project 1		2
Block 4	Environmental Health	4
Block 5	Public Health Policy	4
Block 6	Social and Behavioral Health	4
Capstone Project 2		2
Block 7	Research Methodology	4
Block 8	Occupational Health	4
Block 9	Public Health Nutrition	4
Block 10	Global health and Disaster Management	4
Block 11-12	Final Project Report Submission Publication E- conference	16
Total Credits		60

Training costs

Online Programs/ Online programma

Master's in public health (MPH)

MPH - Two Years USD 5150

Year-1 = USD 2575

Year-2 = USD 2575

Ancillary Fee

(i) Application Fee 30 USD

(ii) Admission processing fee 150 USD

(iii) Graduation Fee 300 USD

(iv) Repeat Exam Fees (50 USD) (if required)

(v) Additional Transcript Fee (80 USD per copy if required)

Students will not be enrolled into the classes without payment of fees in advance

Open day :

Final registration date :

Start date :

Note: 50% of the full trainings cost must be paid before the 2021.

A copy of the deposit must be e-mailed to crystal.karijowidjojo@covab.sr.